We are offering basic clay building workshops for $13+GST per student as our early booking offer for next year. This is our current regular price, but due to rising costs everywhere we will see an increase to our rates in August. Basic clay building workshops include instruction, all materials and firing, and result in a bisque project ready for painting returned to you 21 days after the final workshop in your group. These workshops are scheduled for 75-90 minutes per class depending on the grade and project.

We also have an option to add underglaze to these projects for an additional $5+GST per student. If you decide to take advantage of this option, the workshop requires an additional 30 minutes and we provide an assortment of colors for the students to paint their project with. We then fire the projects in studio, dip them in clear glaze and re-fire them, resulting in a completely finished project ready to take home 21-28 days after the final scheduled workshop.

I am attaching a couple of photos so that you can see the difference between the options.

As I mentioned, with more than 8 classes over consecutive days, I will waive all travel charges. For 11 workshops, I would probably be looking at 4 days, but can give you a better idea after I look at your bell times. To secure your early booking offer, we just need a tentative group of days set aside for October. We can always change them in September, if you find it doesn't work at that time.

Lastly, we will be adding SO MANY new projects over the summer.... I am very excited! The attached windchimes are a sneak peek, but your teachers will want to hold off on making any final decisions as far as projects go because our website will change in August with SO MUCH MORE!

Please let me know if you have any questions or if I can set aside some dates for you.

Principal Report

- Grade 5 Farewell dance? No grade 5 parent stepping up to figure out the dance for Grade 5's so it will not be a go.
- Garden, Plants - it's looking beautiful in the courtyard with all the new flowers and plants!
- Grade 4/5 Teacher, Kindergarten Academy - Brayden Thomson will be the new ½ teacher for next year. Will be a great fit with the staff and kids at ALG. Brayden will also be taking over for Sam for the rest of this year as she is currently on a leave.
- Kindergarten academy has enough registrations to go ahead so we will have a half day class and a full day every day.

Hot Lunch - Very successful year! Interested in teachers' feedback on top favorites. Wondering a which places between a mix of vendors and in school. Wondering about maybe switching up the days for next year, maybe some mid week lunches. Could we maybe post some pictures of the hot lunches on Instagram so parents can see how much food their kids are getting.
